MONDRU

RIGHTS SHEET

Before Breakfast

EUGENE O'NEILL

Original title: Antes do Café

IMPRINT	GENRE	PUBLISHED	PAGES	TRIM SIZE	ISBN
Mondru	Drama	2024	64	14 × 21 cm	978-65-6042-019-9

SYNOPSIS

Before Breakfast, by Nobel Prize in Literature winner Eugene O'Neill, is a modern tragedy that highlights the vulnerability of human relationships and marriage, as well as their flaws and shortcomings. Through the relationship between Mr. and Mrs. Rowland, we enter the visceral depth of a text that exposes the couple's chaotic and brutal coexistence and the factors that lead to their downfall. Neglect, flawed communication, and a lack of hope are elements that contribute to the characters' emotional and physical collapse. O'Neill brings his brilliance to this one-act play, exploring the humanity and pain of his characters.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Eugene O'Neill (1888–1953) was a renowned American playwright, awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1936. His works, prominently featuring the tragedy Long Day's Journey into Night, pioneered the introduction of realist techniques into American theater, exploring human dilemmas with remarkable depth and intensity. O'Neill is recognized as the only playwright to win four Pulitzer Prizes for Drama, and his legacy remains a significant influence on world theater.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Translation, audio, film, TV and stage adaptation. Contact us for availability by language and territory.