SYNOPSIS

Rodrigo lives his life unaware that he is the new character of author Ingrid Pimentel; their vastly different lives intertwine as he becomes the target of his creator's laments and bitterness, prompting reflections on the possible ways of living, chance, choices, and the fine line between writing, reading, and reality.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Dafne Dias is a passionate storyteller and author. Holding a degree in Literature from UNISINOS and with a background as a Portuguese language teacher, she found her calling for writing early on. Currently, she is an active member of the creative writing group “Ordem da Tinta,” where she collaborates with other talented writers to craft new and exciting narratives. Dafne believes that every written word is an opportunity to share emotions, perspectives, and experiences with the world.
