MONDRU

RIGHTS SHEET

I Who Wept This Sea

EDIS HENRIQUE PERES

Original title: Eu que chorei este mar

IMPRINT	GENRE	PUBLISHED	PAGES	TRIM SIZE	ISBN
Mondru	Short Stories	2023	176	14 × 21 cm	978-65-84634-30-5

SYNOPSIS

Relationships, shaped by affection and anguish, form the common thread running through the 22 stories in I Who Wept This Sea. The quest to overcome the passage of time and find happiness fuels the characters as they grapple with violence, grief, parental abandonment, and the desire to reclaim the choices of their youth. The narratives reveal that nothing is as simple as it seems, and the same event gains depth when experienced by more than one character. From an ailing father to a son striving to be the man of the house, these stories offer snapshots of everyday lives confronted by change—or the lack thereof—and the path each decides to forge in order to move forward.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Born on August 5, 1998. A journalist and writer, he was one of the winners of the 52nd Short Story Literary Contest at the Festival de Música e Poesia de Paranavaí (Femup). That same year, he won 1st place in the Short Story Contest of the Associação Brasileira das Instituições de Pesquisa Tecnológica e Inovação (Abipti) with the story A onça. He has also published a story in the literary magazine Trema. Passionate about literature, when he is not lost in the pages of a book, he is writing his own stories.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Translation, audio, film, TV and stage adaptation. Contact us for availability by language and territory.