SYNOPSIS

Winner of the Hugo de Carvalho Ramos Award – 2023 – Poetry

"Nightwalkers" is a poetic work that explores the anguish of poetic creation and the search for meaning in life. Composed of short, impactful poems, the book uses language rich in metaphors and imagery, often somber and introspective. Water is a recurring symbol throughout the work, representing origin, death, and the mystery of existence. The author, Renan Alves Melo, weaves a poetic path that invites the reader to explore human fragility and the singular beauty of words. Awarded in 2023, the collection dives into subjectivity, challenging the reader to join the journey of self-discovery proposed by the poet.

"This is poetry endowed with a vigorous lyrical magnetism, focusing primarily on the creation of imagery, enriched by skillfully constructed metaphors. These poetic qualities earned the work the honor of receiving the Bolsa de Publicações Hugo de Carvalho Ramos Literary Award, due to the richness of its style and the elegance of its verse. Within this context of artistic craftsmanship, the book 'Noctâmbulos', now awarded, unanimously won the recognition of the Judging Committee."
