SYNOPSIS

in "the advent of the minute of silence (and other disturbances)", death is the guiding thread of a process of decomposition. throughout the more than 45 poems, we see various faces of morbidity and finitude, a body decomposing until the complete end of its materiality.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Marcelo Wilinski is passionate about the past and its discords. a native of Curitiba and supporter of Paraná Clube, with a degree in medicine and working in the Sistema Único de Saúde, he released the poetry book 'pedra-placebo' in 2021 through Kotter Editorial, without a launch event due to the pandemic.
