SYNOPSIS

Where could he have come from? Why did he choose that particular window to land on?

A shy little bird was the house's newest visitor. Whenever there was no one in the kitchen, he would fly from the window to the table, pecking at the breads baked by aunt Alice. But at the slightest noise, he would hide behind the lace curtain.

"The Little Bird by the Blue Window" tells the story of a small bird that runs away from home and finds shelter in the blue window of another. Intrigued by his presence, the narrator begins to observe him. Her curiosity and imagination lead her on an adventure to discover the story of the tiny bird by the blue window.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

I am a writer passionate about nature and animals. Because of this, my stories are filled with these settings and characters.

I hold a degree in fine arts and specialize in education and in children's and young adult literature.

Literature has been part of my life since childhood, but the dream of writing children's stories was born with motherhood. In this universe, I found my expression as an artist.

O passarinho da janela azul is my fourth children's book, and it was with great emotion that I followed the beautiful illustrations created by Kelly, who captured the very essence of the story.
