SYNOPSIS

The collection Cityscapes brings together poems portraying contemporary society and its impact on the individual's life. This is achieved both through an intimate gaze, where cities are drawn through the poet's perspective, and through a critical lens, visible in the configuration of a complex city marked by deep social divisions that shape the lives of metropolitan dwellers.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Holds a Master's degree in Literature from PUC-Rio. In 2023, she published the novel À hora dos cachorros (Caravana). Recent poetic works include: Gosto de asfalto molhado (Honorable Mention – 22nd Prêmio Paulo Setúbal); Quem desconhecerá os meus domínios? (15th Prêmio Escriba de Poesias); Separação (1st Prêmio Conceição Evaristo). Her poetry seeks an immersion into everyday city life, revealing its beauties, contradictions, and challenges. She is a member of the Sarau Poesia Andarilha and the Coletivo Escreviventes.
