MONDRU

RIGHTS SHEET

To Be Read on the Ferry on a Hot Day

MARCOS FREITAS

Original title: Para se ler na barca em dia quente

IMPRINT	GENRE	PUBLISHED	PAGES	TRIM SIZE	ISBN
Mondru	Poetry	2025	80	14 × 21 cm	978-65-6042-194-3

SYNOPSIS

"To Be Read on the Ferry on a Hot Day" is a poetry collection that invites the reader on a light, sunny journey, embracing the beauty of everyday moments. The work explores the passage of time in a singular way, with an erratic clock that alternates between acceleration and pause. The book offers poetry that manifests in small things, through a sensitive gaze upon daily life. The author, Marcos Freitas, presents his verses as an antidote to boredom, inviting the reader to reflect on life, with references to childhood, love, the city of Rio de Janeiro, and poetry itself. The poems are presented as a "powerful time machine" that blends silence and noise, offering a reading journey that leads to a place of contemplation and discovery. The work promises surprises at the end of the reading, with the pledge to carry the reader to "the other side of the river."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Marcos Freitas is a true carioca, a journalist, and a TV director. He writes his first book with a certain delay, gathering poems that were born from a boy who walked around the house dressed as a superhero, yet was afraid of the dark and of silence.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Translation, audio, film, TV and stage adaptation. Contact us for availability by language and territory.