MONDRU

RIGHTS SHEET

Park of Dead Flowers

LINDJANE PEREIRA

Original title: Parque das flores mortas

IMPRINT	GENRE	PAGES	TRIM SIZE	ISBN	SAMPLE
Mondru	Novel	140	14 × 21 cm	978-65-6042-251-3	Portuguese excerpt

SYNOPSIS

"Park of Dead Flowers" follows the harsh and moving journey of Inês, a young girl who, after her mother's tragic death, runs away from a shelter and begins living on the streets of João Pessoa, struggling to survive among a group of marginalized youth addicted to shoemaker's glue. Following a traumatic event that nearly costs her life, the protagonist's fate takes a sharp turn when she is taken in by the owner of a luxury cabaret, who transforms her into a coveted courtesan. Immersed in this new reality of lust and exploitation, the young woman with the striking red shoes finds herself swept into an intense, obstacle-ridden passion for Heitor, an ambitious and influential young politician. Torn between the sorrows of the past, the dangers of the brothel, and the heartbreaks of an impossible love, Inês will have to find the inner strength to confront her traumas and fight for her own freedom and redemption.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Lindjane Pereira was born in Feira de Santana-BA, but lives in João Pessoa-PB. She holds a bachelor's, master's, and doctorate in Literature from UFPB, where she also studied Journalism. In 2025, she published the short story collection “Entre muros e sussurros” (Minimalismos). Her stories have also appeared in anthologies from various publishers, such as the book “Eu, eu mesmo e o outro”, published by Mondru. “Park of Dead Flowers” is her first novel.

RIGHTS AVAILABLE

Translation, audio, film, TV and stage adaptation. Contact us for availability by language and territory.