SYNOPSIS

Verso Horizonte began to take shape in a pre-pandemic world, amidst flashes of thought that emerged during the period of isolation. The Verse establishes its Horizon, where poetry of a political and rebellious nature is born. In times of solidarity, lyricism is transfigured into photo-poems, essential for reflection and living. The synesthesia born between verse and image takes form, together elevating feelings, reflections, and sensations to another level, within a new horizon of perception and action.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

He is from São Paulo and has always been interested in many fields. The first was Geography, a passion that became his profession. Fascinated by the Arts since childhood, he dedicated himself to music through the guitar and songwriting. In high school, he discovered Poetry, and phrases took shape through theater. Later, it turned into sound through voice-over work. Poetry ceased to be just a sketch, taking form in verses in which Axé recognizes himself as a plural being.

He is a photographer and filmmaker focused on social causes and vital debates. Having completed high school in Canada and graduated in Advertising and Marketing from PUCC, he began in photography in 2018 and transitioned to film production in 2019. His work includes the documentary “Lótus – Brumadinho 1 ano depois”, about the Pataxó indigenous people affected by the VALE dam disaster. Founder of Coletivo UNI and the “Manifesto Global de Artistas Independentes”, Fabio supports young people in Campinas and Brazilian artists, respectively. Specializing in aerial and underwater imagery, in 2022 he documented the expedition of the NGO “Zuzu for Africa” in the Amazon. With experience across 28 countries, his audiovisual skills stand out in social projects.
