SYNOPSIS

A psychographic medium, frustrated with entities from the beyond, recounts having used a potent psychedelic to heighten the spiritual experience; however, he ends up falling victim to a suffering spirit on the verge of reincarnation, which seizes his consciousness and channels an absurd, phantasmagoric poem where words, shattered and agglutinated, obscenely unfold into new meanings.

Following this episode, the medium—banished from the Spiritist center where he worked for years—decides to decipher and publish the poem out of revenge. From then on, supernatural events begin to pursue him, and what seemed like mere speculation turns into a police investigation involving religious charlatanism, identity fraud, and the smuggling of hallucinogenic toads.

Verte Brado is a hybrid, shapeshifting book capable of transmuting into prose, poetry, script, psychography, package insert, and dictionary, while its creator, Leandro Bianchi, is a fluid, diaphanous entity who at times immerses himself in the plot he orchestrated, and at others dissolves, determining from another plane the fate of his characters.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Leandro Bianchi is a teacher and writer, winner of the 2nd literary award of the Grupo Fleury in the “thematic poetry” category in 2009, and the 3rd literary contest of Big Time Editora in 2015, published in the anthology “Versos de um Novo Tempo”. In 2019, he took 3rd place in the literary contest of Editora Absurtos, appearing in the anthology “Poesia Libertadora”.

He has written two illustrated children's and young adult books: “Raízes, Caminhos e Frutos” in 2018 and “Grãos de Pólen” in 2021, both through the cultural producer Selo Fértil. He also had a children's story published by Editora Philia.

Since 2019, he has been working on the Verte Brado project.
